

ICMC

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE
ON MEDIA & CONFLICT

International Conference on Media & Conflict

11th-12th February 2020 | Islamabad, Pakistan

Call for Papers

Violent Extremism and the Internet Mapping the Present, Predicting the Future

ICMC 2020 is seeking panels and papers showcasing the latest research on current and future trends on the intersection of violent extremism and the internet.

We welcome submissions and abstracts in the following areas:

- ☞ Assessing countering violent extremism programs in the digital space
- ☞ The nexus between online and offline extremism
- ☞ Online extremism and the role of social media platforms
- ☞ Youth, violent extremism and online content
- ☞ Mainstream media, social media and extremism
- ☞ Online extremist activism: Propaganda, radicalization and recruitment
- ☞ Gender, violent extremism and online content
- ☞ Strategic communications and disrupting online extremism
- ☞ Freedom of speech, privacy and ethical dimensions of tackling online extremism
- ☞ Fake news, misinformation and online extremism

Interested participants are requested to send a 200-250 words abstract and brief biography (one paragraph) to Ms. Zosheen Riaz (zosheen@ppc.gov.pk) for consideration of the Organising Committee.

The deadline for submission of abstracts is 10th November 2019

Accepted proposals will be notified by 20th November 2019

Full draft papers will be due by 30th January 2020

